

Household Hazardous Waste Collection and Recycling of Electronics, Tires, Paper, Latex Paint

Household Hazardous Waste:

Collected material will be handled by Drug and Laboratory. This service is available to St. Joseph County Residents only.

Materials accepted:

Pool chemicals, pesticides, old gas, auto batteries, fluorescent bulbs, oil-based paints, stains, pharmaceutical needles (Sharps), smoke alarms, and more. Look for signs such as danger, combustible

Materials not accepted:

No explosives.
No waste oil – it can be recycled at auto parts stores.

The following fees apply:

Up to 100 pounds at no charge;
$1.00/lb. for everything over 100 pounds.

The cost to provide pesticide disposal has more than doubled for 2017.

Donations accepted and appreciated to help defray cost of this service.

Paper Recycling:

CMS Green will be accepting cardboard, newspaper, magazines, junk mail, phone books. (NO plastics)

Appliance Recycling:

Still working on trying to provide appliance recycling for this event. Information will be released as soon as vendor is confirmed.

Electronics:

Collected material will be handled by Advanced Technology Recycling.

Materials accepted:

- | | | |
|--------------------|---------------------|----------|
| Personal Computers | Laptop Computers | Scanners |
| Telephones | Printers | Monitors |
| Televisions | DVD Players | VCR's |
| Game Systems | Cables, Wires, etc. | |

Microwaves will not be accepted.

*Please Notethe electronic recycling will be offered at no charge for this collection.

Tires:

Cobalt Holdings will be collecting tires.

Cost per tire:	Passenger/light truck	$ 2.00 each
	Semi	$ 5.00 each
	Tractor	$25.00 each

Tires must be free of Mud, Concrete, Tree Vines, etc.

Latex Paint:

ePaint Recycling will offer latex paint recycling.
There will be a fee of $2.00 per can (regardless of amount in can).
Please separate your latex paint from oil-based paint and stain.

Saturday, October 21, 2017
8:00 a.m. - Noon
at Fairgrounds in Centreville
Use Main Street Entrance

These programs offered by St. Joseph County and the County Solid Waste Committee. Please note, some services have fees as listed above.

Please call 269-467-5617 for questions